newspapermen that he was "very much pleased" with the outcome of the discussions. Justice Minister St. Laurent expressed similar sentiments and said Premier Walter James of Prince Edward Island had invited the committee to resume its discussions in Charlottetown "where the real fathers met".

Earlier in the day, it had been expected the meetings would go into next week.

HOWEVER, DELBOATES decided to sit more than an hour beyond the usual adjournment time to clear up the few remaining points that were obscure. A premier said that, following these clarifications, there did not seem to be much point in returning next week.

Another Premier said the federal government definitely agreed to move out of the inheritance tax field in exchange for exclusive jurisdiction in the income tax field.

From another source it was learned the exchange also gave the Dominion exclusive use of the corporation tax field. The federal authorities also were reported to have stated they would keep their levies on gasoline, amusements, electricity, race track pari-mutuels and other direct taxes sufficiently low to allow the provinces to collect revenue on such things as well.

AS THE OPPOSITION developed, the federal authorities offered to boost a proposed per capita subsidy to the provinces from $12 to $16. This did not dispel the opposition. Quebec and Ontario made it clear they did not want to give up succession duties.

It was reliably reported Thursday night federal authorities had decided to present to the conference yesterday proposals which would represent about the limit to which the Dominion could go in meeting demands of the provinces.

These proposals were understood to contain agreement to vacate the succession duties field and to make other revisions in the original offer.

THE WORK NOW will be to see that the 10 governments, which will try to work out agreements based on discussions of the co-ordinating committee.

The mere moving of the Dominion out of the succession duties field would require a revision of practically all proposed grants to the provinces, and might call for a reduction of the per capita subsidy from $15 back to $12.

This work will be done by the approval.

Skating Stars to Appear at Carnival Here

Winners, between them, of all of Canada's major skating laurels, are the Caley sisters, Hazel and Dorothy, shown above, who are slated to appear in the annual Glencora Ice Carnival, Feb. 26 to March 2. Some of the most discerning critics in American show business have used such adjectives as "outstanding", "greatest" and "amazing" in describing their precision performances on ice. For more than three years they were associated with Hollywood Star Sonja Henie in her Chicago and New York Silver Skates show.

UNO Meeting

agreed presents the world organization with a task much greater than the Iranian compromise.

He promised in his inaugural address to be "a servant to you all". He reminded the assembly of the tremendous task ahead to achieve a democratic, peaceful world.

"THOSE WHO GAVE their lives in order that we may be free, those who lost their homes, those who suffered from the consequences of war have given us a sacred mandate," Lin said. "We may find difficulties and obstacles technical experts and submitted to the co-ordinating committee for the approval."

Some delegates raised the question whether it was good for the organization to have two permanent members of the council, and cross examine each other in their own forum.

"THE RUSSIAN-BRITISH clash remained the dominant question today. The security council will meet again Monday to face Russia's demand for removal of British troops from Greece, and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's request for a straight forward decision as to whether Britain is threatening peace in Greece.

Capture Towns

SAIGON, Feb. 2.—(AP)—French authorities yesterday announced the capture of Phan Ry and Phan Met, the only two important towns left in Annamese hands after a two-day battle. French officials said they crushed Annamese forces in Southern Annam last week.

Air Force

the next few weeks a small replacement contingent of 500 or 600 interim volunteers will be sent overseas to replace a similar number of long service personnel who have been held on duty by virtue of their key positions.

"THE REMAINDER of the force will have to wait until the general homeward movement starts at the end of June," he added.

He had spoken to hundreds of airmen while overseas and had found many were re-evaluating their position. He said they were not coming home to join their families.

"These officers obviously were under the misapprehension that the men overseas had volunteered whereas actually they were selected for the service," said Col. Gibson. "Meanwhile, two air force convert parties, nighty movies, organized sports, well-appointed leave centres and a comprehensive educational program have been established to prevent boredom among the airmen."

THURSDAY WAS THE deadline for discharged veterans and airmen still in the service to take up their preference for permanent force appointment and the start of civilian recruiting. Actually veterans have merely lost their right of preference and they still can enlist for the interim and permanent force.

Meanwhile, Col. Gibson is awaiting a cabinet decision on his post-war plans before proceeding with the serious work of organizing active force commands.

It is possible that these will include a Western Command with headquarters Vancouver No. 2 Command with headquarters at Winnipeg; No. 1 Command with headquarters at Trenton, Ont., and a Eastern Command with headquarters at Halifax.

IT IS POSSIBLE training might be concentrated in the two central commands while operations would be conducted from the two coastal commands.

Bombers likely would be stationed at each post and perhaps some of the fighter and transport squadrons would operate from inland stations.

At present there are six commands in Canada, the other two being the Northwest Air Command, which doubtless would become part of Western Command, and Maintenance Command which would become part of the headquarters organization.

Wanted to Stay in Prison

"In or Out"—Douks Strip

TORONTO, Feb. 2.—(CP)—A disturbing act that sent six Nelson, B.C., Doukhobor women to Kingston penitentiary two years ago was repeated—without results—at the penitentiary yesterday in protest against their release. It was learned last night from one of the group who stopped in Toronto for a few minutes while awaiting a westbound train.

The only English-speaking woman who said her name was Vera, told reporters they disobeyed at the penitentiary yesterday before leaving in an effort to remain imprisoned until wren of their compatriots, who still have six more months to serve, were released.

"We didn't want to leave our sisters behind," said Vera. The women were assisted in dressing by female officials at the prison. "They dressed us and we kissed them," said Vera. "We were just as happy in jail. We were all brothers and sisters."

Canada's Wheat Exports Higher

OTTAWA, Feb. 2.—(CP)—Canada has exported 175,500,000 bushels of wheat and wheat flour during the first five months of the current crop year, which ends next July 31, against 118,000,000 bushels during the corresponding period of the last crop year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

THE GREATEST INCREASE occurred in overseas clearances of wheat, which jumped from 63,000,000 bushels last year to 165,000,000 bushels. Imports of Canadian wheat into the United States for human consumption and milling in bond totalled 8,000,000 bushels, a decrease of almost 75,000,000 bushels.

The estimated remainder on hand at Jan. 1 for export during the

The "Lit" on Friday was indeed a rare treat when the Truth or Consequences program was enacted on the stage. June Chetiborog couldn't have done better than the real master of ceremonies himself on the original program.

SOME OF THE STUNTS were: Suckling a lemon through the nose; Merrill enjoyed the program very much as he was the one that suffered. George Artyukh said: "I really am a star man, it was just he caused he had to fish a penny out of a bowl of flour with his mouth. The two make-up men did not do too bad on one another either."

least meet. With this week. Fear of the vic'tims is general and once again we discovered the reason why the Edmon-Teens are the very short end of the 37-11 score.

A literary contest to be open from Feb. 1 to March 1 is now being sponsored by the Yearbook staff. The Photography club is planning a musical comedy to be held sometime in the future.

THE ABSENCE of several members of the principal Mr. Hyde has returned to 185. Most of us at Edmon-Teens are quite glad to see him back again.

Newest feature of physical training is the introduction of modern ball-dancing, with both boys and girls, and whoever said that jitterbugging was held sometime in the future.

SENIOR GIRLS' Basketball team will play Eastwood Seniors on Monday. Several well-timed in their shorts, the girls are expected to draw a record crowd of supporters, and here's the best of luck to them.

Pin-gong and Ping-pong are really hot in the gym, with a long list of players posted for a hard elimination contest.

COMPETITION is keen between teams in the sale of year play tickets which are selling like hot-cakes.

Hi-Y girls had a very successful party on Jan. 29 at the YMCA.

MOST TALKED-ABOUT coming is Scott's annual All-time formal dance, to be held March 15, at least among the fair sex. For one of them it will bring the thrill of the formal.

USUAL There was only one drawback to this happy occasion and that was that there were not enough sweaters for everyone.

However, next year we hope that the school sweater will be made in larger quantities and that every last student will be able to buy one for himself.

VICTORIA

With the winter sleigh-ride planned for Friday, February 1, this week's snowflurries were the power to a Victoria's sleigh.

Left the school at 8 p.m. Upon returning a little while for the ride, they were treated to refreshments and two hours of dancing in the gym.

Mr. Deaton, Mr. Collier, Mr. Levy and Mr. Richards were on hand to join in the spirit of the evening.

DURING THE DANCE, members of the Victoria's sleigh-ride were a sale of copies of "Where the Red-And-Black Flies" (the official school song).

Concluding an extensive offering training course, the following called have been selected for rank and file: Vice Cadet Corp. Capt. A. Munro, Capt. P. McKay, Adj. J. H. Davidson, Platoon-Sgt. A. Davidson, Platoon-Sgt. D. Dingwall, Sgt. S. Barry at Oliver Community rink.

Refreshments of chocolate milk and doughnuts will be served, so don't forget the big skating party on Saturday.

It makes one think that the end of the term is near when students start talking about school pin-up books, but by your winter school pin at the end of the term you had better pay for it by Monday, Feb. 4.

AND BY THE WAY, Feb. 15 is the deadline for all the "tandem" school for the year book, so if you have any special "pin-ups" you'd better start "stick 'em."

A happy crowd of former and present day Sepites thronged the hall for the evening of the Mid-Term Musical.

The melodious strains of George Wilkie's orchestra provided the music for a variety of dances. In keeping with the theme of the Mid-Term Musical, the students and variety dances were on the program. Prizes awarded during the evening for various sports and dances were presented to the winners.

Armand Barril, Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

THE STUDENTS' UNION is having to accept the resignation of Joan Pollard as secretary.

However, we are pleased to welcome her back to the school.

Teen Club Movement Spreading

Central Council Provides Information
With More Groups Likely Here

The teen club movement is spreading. On the 25th of last month the first teen age group was formed in Vancouver. The teen club movement is spreading. The first one of the Collingwood-Norquay district. It is operated much the same as a town too. A mayor is elected (Vancouver's first is a mayor) and a number of aldermen.

EVERYONE'S strict rules include no smoking, no drinking, no gambling and no swearing. To see that these orders are carried out at their functions, a police force has been elected and just now it is at the club's affairs.

Every one in a while the organization holds a parents' night, when parents will be invited to attend and see how the club is operated and just how the teen children do on their own.

A NUMBER of bannisters and shaves have been offered by teenagers in various districts of Vancouver in which to meet and organize, or if they wish, to be used as a meeting place for the club.

Since this first teen club has been made and soon it is expected that many more will be operating on as large a scale as our groups here in Edmonton.

IT APPEARS that it is about time the teen club started spreading in Edmonton too. What about North Edmonton and the East End?

There must surely be enough teen-agers in these areas to form a club. Why not find some place to meet, say the school auditorium or community hall, and have a temporary committee to start things going and then make application to the central council.

Advice on the starting of a club could be obtained from the YMCA or from Fred Pemberton, executive secretary of the YMCA.

HOW ABOUT you? Do you live in those districts making a survey in your community to find out how many teen-agers there are interested in forming such an organization. There's plenty of time to get it going.

Major and Minor Notes

TWO of the most eagerly awaited musical events of the season are scheduled for next week, and both at the Empire theatre. On Monday Paul Robeson, Negro bass, will appear in the Women's Musical Club Celebrity Series, and commencing Wednesday and continuing until Saturday, the Empress Civic Opera Society will present "Bitter Sweet".

Mr. Robeson is singing in Winnipeg tonight, and is scheduled to arrive here Monday morning. This city is playing host to two talented singers from Vancouver, who have come to portray the leading roles in "Bitter Sweet" with the Edmonton Civic Opera Society. They are Ann Watt, soprano and John Beadell, tenor. Members of the society were won immediately by the talents and personalities of the visitors, who in turn found their way and tempo surroundings pleasant and entirely to their liking.

There was a decided upsurge in appreciation during the war and particularly among service personnel. From his close contact with service men, through having sons at many stations, he is convinced that they will carry the love of music back into civil life. "I look to see an ever-increasing appreciation of music in Canada," he said.

On Tuesday evening a group of first string students of the Dominion Institute of Music, under the leadership of Ray LeRoy Olson and M. Odden, appeared in concert at the Memorial Hall, Calgary. The program, according to all accounts, was well played and met with a cordial reception. A somewhat similar program is planned for here during April.

wonderful." She said, "It is no secret to work with someone who knows the job in hand as well as Mr. Carmichael. She is equally at home with the vocal and orchestral end. I noticed at rehearsal if anyone was hesitant or unsure, Mr. Carmichael was right in there singing the missing part with us and convincing them."

Born in Brandon, Man., Miss Watt has been a Vancouver resident since she was five years old. "So you see, I really am a Vancouverer," she said, "and I have had many opportunities for young singers, she said they were limited in the West."

There is a little chance for a few. The development of radio has increased the available opportunities, but if you really want to play, you still have to make your way through the canteen area. ALTHOUGH PROBABLY the most successful of the younger generation of Vancouver stars with unusual opportunities at the coast, she is contemplating leaving the East. She hopes to go to New York within the next year and continue her studies.

SHE IS FOND of all kinds of music, as long as it is good, and her work has brought her in contact with everything from popular songs of the day, to opera. Mrs. Watt said to your correspondent that she had a final choice on preference, she would choose French art songs, those by Debussy, Duparc, Fauré, Ravel, and others, where there are opportunities to create finely done and varied tone pictures without the necessity of a great volume of sound.

At Vancouver she has encountered Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gardner, William Wynman and other former Edmonton musicians. She hopes to do a little skating while here and enjoys feeling the crisp snow crunch under her skis. It is your correspondent's guess that her charming manner, winning personality, engaging smile and blond hair, you can see it, as she has to wear a couple of wiglets with those at a dress fit with those at a dress fit.

MR. BEADLE, who has developed a decided proclivity for hiking since he came here, "I feel this air here so invigorating that I want to be out in it as much as I can," he said. Asked what sport he was especially favored in his wanderings he named far-dunk parts of the city, ranging from the University of Alberta to some near the corner of 11th Avenue and 50 street.

"EVERYBODY here has been so kind to me," he said, "I feel like a wonderful city. Furthermore, I was amazed at the musical talent I have heard. What I encountered at this rehearsal of the show was sufficient augury for its success. I think the society and the city as a whole has a great asset in Mr. Carmichael."

HE THINKS there is a rapidly growing appreciation of music. There was a decided upsurge in appreciation during the war and particularly among service personnel. From his close contact with service men, through having sons at many stations, he is convinced that they will carry the love of music back into civil life. Loan to Britain

Said Investment

In "The Future"

DELTAMORE, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Wing Cmdr. Leonard Joseph Bickel, DFC, of St. Catharines, Ont.—The saviour of Ceylon—has been made an Officer of the Order of the British Empire in recognition of the outstanding work he performed while in the island during the Japanese prison camp, air force headquarters announced last night.

THE loan, he said, would be Britain over her post-war emergency and enable it to become again "one of the very largest factors in the commerce of the world."

Mr. Bickel said the loan was "not a reward for an ally, however gallant and enduring," and "not a pension, gift or handout of any description whatever."

Instead it was an investment in "the kind of future in which enterprise can operate under the rule of equal opportunity to bring about prosperity."

OTTAWA, Feb. 2.—(CP)—Canadian government officials now are laying the groundwork for the granting of a loan to help Britain establish herself in world trading markets. It was learned yesterday.

The loan talks, scheduled to get underway here about Feb. 11, are not expected to be long and drawn out.

Finance Minister Hiley is expected to act as chairman at the discussions. He stressed also at St. Thomas, Ont., and Winnipeg, and was named to Episkope Church here in 1925.

2 Balkan Nations Become Republics

By The Canadian Press
Yugoslavia and Hungary became republics Friday as the Balkans moved toward post-war political stabilization and away from pre-war royal family rule.

Marshal Tito, famed Partisan commander during the war, was named Prime Minister of the new Federated Republic of Yugoslavia, which differs somewhat in constitution from the Hungarian republic.

PREMIER ZOLTEN TILBY, leader of the moderately conservative Small Holders party, was elected president of Hungary by acclamation of the country's national assembly.

The Yugoslavian constitution, as adopted by the constituent assembly, abolishes the throne and provides for the setting up of a government closely resembling that of Russia.

Before packed galleries, the Yugoslav assembly unanimously accepted the new basic law.

While the new governmental structure follows the Russian design its supporters say it does not promote state socialism to the Soviet degree. Rather, they claim, the constitution sets up a regime somewhere between that of Russia and the western democracies.

Calgary Owners Renting to Vets

CALGARY, Feb. 2.—(CP)—Calgary Property Owners Association has never refused to rent to veterans nor to open the homes of members to them, and has "no intention of making any such recommendation," Irvine Graham, president, said in a statement replying to criticism of the association voiced by Hon. A. J. Hoole, Alberta's minister of economic affairs.

Mr. Graham said many members of the association now give services and their families preference in renting suites. The group opposed what it considered "unreasonable" federal rental regulations and the government's unwillingness to return to owners their rights to remove obnoxious tenants from their homes.

IN CHARGING THE landlords with "outrageous and shameful action" Mr. Hoole was under a misapprehension as to the terms of a resolution passed by the association, Mr. Graham said.

The resolution said the association was regretfully unwilling to respond to the appeal to house owners to open their homes to returning veterans unless and until the governing authorities at Ottawa see fit to return to owners their right of control and the freedom to notice.

Mr. Graham said many members of the association now give services and their families preference in renting suites. The group opposed what it considered "unreasonable" federal rental regulations and the government's unwillingness to return to owners their rights to remove obnoxious tenants from their homes.

Alsace, Lorraine Frenchmen Ousted By Nazi Forces

NUERNBERG, Feb. 2.—(AP)—One hundred and forty thousand Frenchmen were driven from Alsace and Lorraine by Nazi intent upon consolidating those frontier provinces for the German super-state, the French prosecution declared yesterday at the trial of 21 ranking Nazis for war crimes.

Edgar Faure, assistant French prosecutor, told the international military tribunal that half of these French refugees, stripped of all but a few hundred francs, were sent to Eastern Germany and Poland. The others were dumped in unoccupied France.

Julius Stricher, one of the defendants, suffered a heart attack yesterday but United States Army medical officers said his condition was not serious.

Record Number of Rinks Already Assured for Alberta Curling Association Event

• Total Entry for 29th Annual Bonspiel May Exceed 175

New Curling Era

Bert Robertson (above) is president of the Granite Curling Club where artificial ice will be used this year for the first time in the history of the Alberta Curling Association's Bonspiel. A keen curler, Bert took a prominent part in the Granite campaign to install the new ice plant last fall.

Curlers' Service

McDougall Church

A special church service for all curlers including those who will be taking part in the 29th annual Bonspiel of the Alberta Curling Association will be held Sunday night at the McDougall United Church. The service will commence at 7:30 o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. E. B. Brundage of Dayland, one of the ACA chaplains.

Diamonds may be colorless, blue, white, blue, pink, red, yellow, green, brown or black.

Play Commences Monday Morning

With the 1945 record entry of 134 rinks already shattered, officials of the Alberta Curling Association's 29th annual Bonspiel, which starts here Monday morning, are now expecting the total number to reach 175 before closing time at 9 o'clock tonight.

Up to Friday night Secretary Jim McCool already had received 159 entries, which was 26 better than last year, when the previous record was set. A total of 116 outside rinks and 43 city-made up the 159. Last year 91 visiting and 43 city rinks competed.

THE ADDITIONAL number of rinks taking part will not be too much of a problem for "Draw-man" McCool as six more sheets of ice will be available than the 25 which were used last year. In addition to the 10 at the Royal and six at each of the Alberta Avenue and Granite—all used last year—there will be an extra half dozen at the Thistle being used for the first time this year since the building was taken over early during the war.

When the draw is made up, sheets numbering from 1 to 10 will be at the Royal; from 11 to 16 at the Granite; 17 to 22 at Alberta Avenue and 23 to 28 at the Thistle.

THREE new competitions in addition to the new system of draw known as the McCool draw, will be introduced this year. The Northern Alberta British Consols playdown will also be run off during Bonspiel week instead of the week following as in the past.

Diagrams may be colorless, blue, white, blue, pink, red, yellow, green, brown or black.

Draw Secretary

James A. (Jim) McCool, secretary-treasurer of the Alberta Curling Association for a number of years, will be the "busiest" man in town next week with his task of making the draw and seeing that everything runs off smoothly in the 29th annual Bonspiel, opening Monday. He is also the inventor of the "McCool draw", being used this year for the first time.

Two Primaries

Red Deer 'Spiei

Extensive to The Edmonton Bulletin RED DEER, Feb. 2.—Play started the jewelry stages in the two primaries in the Red Deer Bonspiel on Friday, and was moving right along in the other three competitions. Friday was the third day of play and the weather was again right for the 43 rinks here and the ice was keen.

Only the seven sheets at the curling rink were used on Friday. Five sheets at the hockey arena had been used for the first two days. Continued success of some of the players began to show things up Friday but good progress was made. There was again plenty of curling during the day.

In the grand challenge skip Little of Red Deer was to meet McCormick, Lacombe, to complete the fourth. Bert Flegler, Innisfail, was already out there waiting for the winner. In the lower half Dave Edwards, Didsbury, and Gordon Malcolm of Calgary, were drawn against each other for Saturday morning.

Four late games on Friday night filled the rink in the other primary, the Hotelkeepers', Bisset, Dawson Creek, was playing Flegler; Edwards was up against Art Anderson, Drumheller; Miller, Innisfail, was playing Vern Neely, Sylvan Lake and Malcolm, Calgary, was playing Hugh McLevin, "The Flying Scotman," Red Deer.

The eight were filled in the Canadian League competition which is open only to the visiting rinks of which there are 27. Edwards, Didsbury, Henderson, Bowden, Drever, Stettler, Flegler, Miller and Berrett, Innisfail; Hansen, Bentley, and Hanson, the Travellers' rink from Calgary, were the rinks.

By midnight all the positions in the Bisset's secondary to the grand challenge, were occupied and a midnight draw filled up the eight in the other secondary, the Eatons'. By 9 p.m. on Friday there were only two undefeated rinks, Dave Edwards, Didsbury, and Bert Flegler, Innisfail. Both rinks were still in the two main events and the Visitors' Competition, and each had seven straight wins.

Gordon Malcolm, Calgary, had seven victories, but had one loss. He was still in both primaries but lost in the Visitors' competition.

"Ring" Patronized By Prominent Men

TORONTO, Feb. 2.—(CP)—The "Bull Ring" where hockey bets are made at Maple Leaf Gardens is frequented by some of the most prominent men in Toronto; the police Commissioner was told Friday in reports by inspectors.

The reports were requested by the commission on suggestion of Chief John Chisholm following the explosion of Walter (Babe) Pratt, Toronto Maple Leafs defenseman, by the National Hockey League for gambling.

Inspector John Vernon, locating the area as in a smoking and refreshment section on the east side of the arena, said there "is no doubt that extensive betting" takes place there.

"For some time this betting was carried on in a very open manner and to such an extent that they were carrying the odds on the game and waving money in the air," he said. "A large number are characterized as all calling."

Hobbeema Trims Millet By 11-4

HOBBEEMA, Alta. Feb. 2.—Playing in sub-zero weather recently, the Hobbeema Chiefs piled up a considerable score by trouncing the Millet club 11-4 at Hobbeema. The Peter Erminesken opened the scoring for the home club on a well laid down pass from Morris Wolfe. A few minutes later the Millet club tied the game up with a score from Thiel, and then went ahead to count twice more on goals from McIntyre and Mullen.

In the second period the Chiefs led the score up with goals from the sticks of Baptiste from Schmidt and Buffalo from Lightning. Three more goals were scored by Erminesken, Schmidt and Baptiste. The period ended 5-0. In the third period the Chiefs really united their brains and rapped in five more goals to the visitors' cue.

Bonspiel headquarters this year will be in the McDougall hotel.

Build—live money at the ARMY and NAVY

The ROAD TO AEA

By Capt. HARPER PROWSE, M.L.A.

THE prohibitionists are on the march again! The Women's Christian Temperance Union have served notice that they intend to petition the provincial legislature, at the coming session, asking that beverage rooms for women be abolished. They intend to do this because, they state, they are firmly convinced that most of our domestic social problems today are the result of "our present liquor debacle."

WITH ADMIRABLE enthusiasm, but questionable judgment, they affirm that the increased consumption of alcoholic beverages, which has reached an all time high, is largely responsible for the ever increasing toll of accidents, disruption of home life, and delinquency among both youth and adults. And they go on to claim that with beverage rooms for women providing facilities where women are encouraged to partake of intoxicating liquors, there is a consequent neglect of home and children, and a breaking down of the fine sense of moral responsibility which has hitherto marked the womanhood of our land.

Personally, I am sure that the increased consumption of alcoholic beverages is not the cause of all the ills they mention, but is the result of war strain, easy money, and war conditions generally which is also the cause of delinquency and delinquency they mention. Continued on Page Twenty-one

Board of Music Meeting in City Reviews Policy

Presidents of the universities and deputy ministers of education of the three prairie provinces arrived in Edmonton Saturday to attend a meeting of the Western Board of Music.

ALSO ATTENDING the meeting is Dr. R. MacKenzie, president of the University of British Columbia. The University of British Columbia is not a member of the Western Board.

The University of Alberta is represented by Dr. Robert Newman, president, and Prof. John Rymaszewski, professor of music, Saskatchewan University, by Dr. J. S. Thompson, president, and Dr. Arthur Collingwood, professor of music, and the University of Manitoba, by Dr. W. A. Trueman, president. Dr. Trueman said that registration at the Manitoba University last year was 3,700 compared with between 2,700 and 2,800 last year. It was anticipated that the registration next fall would be approximately 3,700.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of Saskatchewan, the enrollment at present was 3,700 approximately 60 per cent above the year last year. Both universities, it was stated, were experiencing difficulties in finding housing accommodation for registered students.

Commenting on the meeting, Dr. Newman said that the meeting will review the work of the board and plan its future policy.

Nine Entrants Contest Winter Carnival Honor

The names of nine candidates for becoming queen of the Edmonton Winter Carnival have been submitted to date by Lorne Calhoun of the carnival committee. It was held Saturday at Ski Village.

THE CANDIDATES all represent various groups associated with youth commission organizations of this city. The queen will be crowned this 27 at a ceremony at Ski Village.

In charge of the program planning for the carnival event is Mayor McCure. The undertaking will extend over eight days and nights.

T. G. Derrington said Saturday that arrangements for the street parade to be held in conjunction with the carnival are proceeding satisfactorily. Many appropriate designs have been selected so far by Edmonton business firms and organizations for participation in the parade. Paul Britton, executive vice-president, has undertaken the job of obtaining horses and drivers for their part in the procession.

IT IS EXPECTED that Mayor Almy and other civic dignitaries will ride in the parade in "cubers" with elderly jingling bells and prancing hickies. The junior chamber will provide an elaborate float to convey the nine queen candidates.

Other features of the week include a "soap box" derby for youngsters, with arrangements being made by Leah Hopkins to take place Saturday, March 4.

Address Expresses Regret In Clergyman's Departure

It has been ten and one-half years since the Rev. Dr. A. K. McMinin took over the ministry of McDougall United Church. Next week he leaves that pulpit for his new home on Vancouver Island.

APPRECIATION of his faithful work and the regret that he is to leave them is expressed by his congregation in the form of an address, which follows:

The Rev. A. K. McMinin, B.A., DD., has been the minister of McDougall church for 10 and a half years, the longest ministry in the church's history. He came to McDougall when the depression was at its worst. The church was badly in debt. There was a huge mortgage. The first task was that Dr. McMinin set himself was straightening out the current debts. This was done. Then he tackled the mortgage. It seemed hopeless but Dr. McMinin after prayer and dedication set himself to the task. He presented the challenge to his people until they too taught the vision. The mortgage was paid, bringing great blessing to the church in the paying of it.

DR. MCMININ next called his people to another adventure in faith, the renovation of the church's interior. The money was raised, the auditorium was renovated, giving McDougall one of the finest church auditoriums in western Canada. This was followed by the renovation of the main floor. Then came the renovation of the organ which had been neglected for several years and also the rooms which had been leased to the Red Cross. Finally, in the list of renovations is the renovating of the exterior of the church. This has been a long task but will be finished next year with several hundred dollars on hand towards its cost. All this has been done under the leadership, guidance and inspiration of Dr. McMinin. If ever Dr. McMinin wishes to change his middle name it must appropriate one would be "McMinin."

DR. MCMININ has given the church an intellectual leadership which has been outstanding. With a sound scholarly background, with continual reading and study, with a keen knowledge of economic and world affairs, he has given his people an understanding of the rank of the church in the world. His theology has been sound and consistent, orthodox in the true sense of the word, orthodox in its keeping with the latest in theological development yet retaining the essentials of the historic Christian faith.

IT HAS BEEN in what is the true function of the ministry—the cure of souls—that Mr. McMinin has been at his best. With a deep spirituality and the soul of the mystic, with life lived in and with God, and Christ, he has had the spiritual resources to help others in their times of need. He has been a great source of comfort in times of sorrow, an understanding friend in times of trouble. Many have found in him the solace, the strength, the wisdom, and inspiration they needed. There, too, has been his humor and wit which were always ready to bubble forth and delight his listeners. It was not for nothing that Dr. McMinin was born in Ireland. WE TOO EXPRESS our appreciation of Mr. McMinin who has filled so charmingly the position of "lady of the manse." She has endeavored herself to all be kind and friendly manner. Dr. McMinin has had in her a worthy companion and McDougall a sympathetic friend.

It is with sincere regret that we accepted Dr. McMinin's resignation. We know he has been a blessing to us in our service. McDougall will not seem the same without him. We thank him for his leadership, his friendship, the inspiration he has been to us during the years he has been at McDougall. We pray that God's richest blessing will go with him and Mrs. McMinin and that he will be restored soon and completely to health to resume the work for which he is so suitably fitted. Thank you, Dr. McMinin, for a splendid ministry with us.

SUPERMAN

AND

IF WE HIT
LARGER
WE'RE DOOMED!

LOIS LANE AND PROF VERN ARE ZOOMING THROUGH SPACE IN AN ATOM-DRIVEN SPACE SHIP, EN ROUTE TO THE PLANET SATURN. SUDDENLY, DIRECTLY IN THEIR PATH, THEY SIGHT A DENSE FIELD OF METEORITES...

I DON'T SEE HOW WE CAN MISS THEM!

ALL WE CAN DO IS CLOSE THE SHUTTERS TO PROTECT THE PLEXIGLASS FROM FRAGMENTS—AND TRUST TO LUCK!

I STILL SAY THIS WOULD BE A WONDERFUL TIME TO HAVE SUPERMAN AROUND!

LET'S TURN THE CLOCK BACK TO THE INSTANT WHEN THE SPACE SHIP LEFT THE EARTH'S SURFACE...

IT WOULD HAVE BEEN PLEASANT TO GO ON THE TRIP AS CLARK KENT—BUT I HAVE A HUNCH I MIGHT PROVE MORE VALUABLE AS SUPERMAN.

VERN'S SPACE SHIP IS DOING BETTER THAN 700 MILES AN HOUR—WHICH CALLS FOR SOME REAL SUPER-SPEED ON MY PART!

HOURS LATER...

THAT FIELD OF METEORITES! THEY'LL SMASH THE SHIP TO BITS—UNLESS I CAN DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

WITH A TERRIFIC SURGE OF SPEED, THE MAN OF STEEL ROCKETS AHEAD AND BATS THE CELESTIAL MISSILES FROM THE PATH OF THE SPACE SHIP!

OOOPS!—THERE GOES MY FIELDING AVERAGE! THAT LITTLE ONE GOT BY ME!

IT'S AMAZING!! WE MUST BE COMPLETELY PAST THAT FIELD, AND ONLY ONE SMALL FRAGMENT HARMLESSLY STRUCK THE SHIP!

QUICK, PROFESSOR—OPEN THE SHUTTERS! I HAVE A STRANGE IDEA THAT—

YOU HAVE A STRANGE IDEA THAT WHAT, MISS LANE?

OH... NOTHING... NOTHING AT ALL, PROFESSOR...

THEY CAN'T VERY WELL LET ME IN WHILE THE SHIP'S MOVING—SO I MIGHT AS WELL GET BACK OUT OF THE BREEZE.

A BIT WARM ATOP THESE PROPULSION TUBES—BUT SINCE THE TEMPERATURE IN OUTER SPACE IS ABSOLUTE ZERO, IT'S RATHER COSY AT THAT!

DON'T RELAX TOO MUCH, SUPERMAN! THERE'S UNUSUAL TROUBLE AHEAD!

RIGHTS OF MICE

SINCE Ginky had behaved himself for the past few weeks, the Teenie Weenies agreed to let him sleep in the pint fruit jar which the little people used for a jail. Ginky made a comfortable bed out of an old rag, and he spent most of his time sleeping. The lazy mouse wanted the Teenie Weenies to feed him too, but they refused to do that.

Ginky raided the Teenie Weenie garbage thimble on the back porch every night, but he didn't get much there. The little people are very careful not to waste food. The Teenie Weenie Cook objected to Ginky's eating out of the garbage thimble, for the mouse usually left the thimble lid off and he scattered the things he didn't want all over the back porch. The Cook asked Ginky not to be so messy, but the mouse paid no attention to him and went right on in his careless ways. Ginky grumbled a great deal over the quality of the garbage. One day, after he had found only a lina bean skin, a couple of sunflower seed shucks and a few burned bread crumbs, he flew into a violent rage. He kicked the garbage thimble off the porch and threw the cover after it. He began squealing at the top of his voice and demanded to see the General.

"I'm not going to stand this treatment any longer!" Ginky screamed when the General came out onto the porch. "I know my rights and I'm gonna have 'em. I've given up crime so you'll let me sleep in your jail and what do I get for that sacrifice? Nothing! Not even decent garbage."

"But, Ginky, when we agreed to let you sleep in the jail we made it plain that you would have to get your own food," the General reminded him. "We are not going to feed a big strong mouse who is able but too lazy to get his own supplies."

"You're trying to starve me!" Ginky shouted.

"You can hunt your own food," the Cook put in. "You're always leaving trash around on the porch and you never put the top back on the thimble when you have finished."

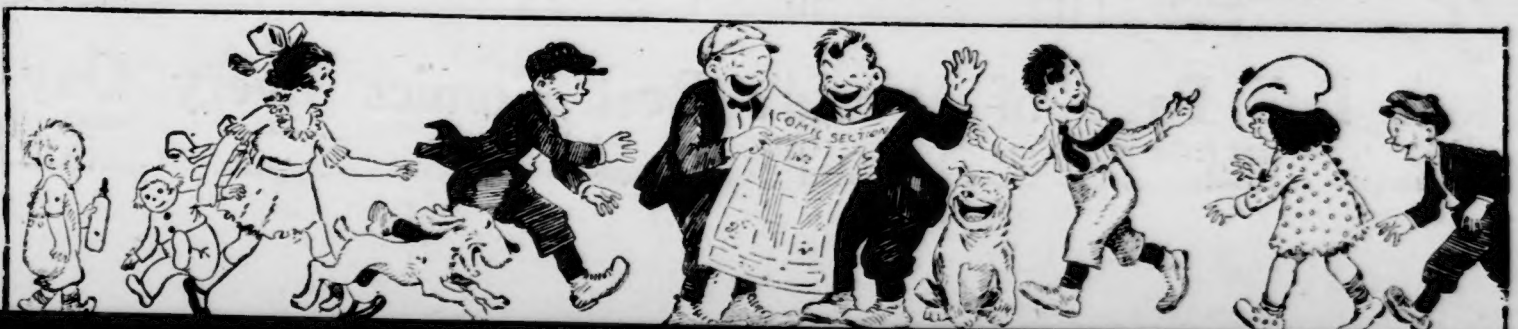

"Oh, my!" exclaimed Ginky with a sneer. "And you don't approve of my garbage thimble manners, either. That's too bad."

"Well, Ginky," said the General, "it's too bad you don't like our garbage. We don't care whether you take it or not."

"ALL RIGHT! ALL RIGHT! If that's the way you feel about it, I'll never touch another bit of your measly garbage," Ginky threatened.

With his whiskers quivering and his tail twitching with rage, he walked stiffly away.
